What is Give As You Earn (GAYE)?

GAYE is a simple, efficient and flexible payroll giving scheme, which allows your employees to donate to any UK registered charity of their choice directly from their gross salary before tax is deducted, and to receive immediate tax relief of up to £4 for every £10 donated. The system is simple to opt in and out of, giving donors full control over what they give.

What are the benefits of offering payroll giving to employees?

Research has shown that there are several tangible business benefits from offering payroll giving to your employees. GAYE donations to Environclean Community Group can significantly:

- Help you demonstrate Corporate Social Responsibility
- Broaden your customer base. Our environmental credentials and focus on self-help is growing
- Help promote products and gain competitive advantage
- Motivate staff helping to improve staff loyalty and team work
- Offer skills sharing through fundraising and volunteering activities
- Create positive publicity and raise your company profile
- Bring tax benefits

Why should your company have a payroll-giving scheme

Recent studies carried out by Charity Aid Foundation (CAF) discovered that 46% of employed people would give through their payroll if they knew how to, or the facilities were in place.

If you run a payroll giving scheme such as Give As You Earn. You will get a certificate and a quality mark to use on your website, letterheads and other literature. If you cover the cost or match your employees donations these costs can be offset against corporation tax thus reducing your companies tax bill. Keeping it in a Charities Aid Foundation (CAF) company account (free of charge) will help separate it from business revenue. The GAYE payroll giving scheme is easy to run. CAF will help your payroll department to set the scheme up, also give you advise on the best ways to promote it.

Make your companies pay-roll giving scheme a real success

A successful payroll giving scheme can make you company a great place to work, and can improve the image of your company. Why not invite us to explain the scheme to your employees, or include it in an induction session? We would also be more than happy to promote your company in our newsletter, website and local/national press and would also be willing to give speeches at parties or meetings to outline what difference your staff's support has made to our work. Please do feel free to contact us on the following details. We very much look forward to hearing from you.
